

I am Natalye Polack. I am originally from Poughkeepsie but I have been a resident of Cornwall-on-Hudson for three and a half years. I have five children, ages 8 and under. I teach French at Kingston High School. My husband is also a teacher. We moved down here when he was teaching at NYMA. We completely fell in love with COH and decided to stay even when he got a new job in Middletown. This is where we want to raise our children and we are committed to this community.

I have served on several professional committees during my career. I was Secretary of the Association of Language Teachers of Orange, Ulster, and Dutchess Counties (ALoud) from 2003-2006 and then President from 2007-2009. I also served on the Board of Directors for the New York State Association of Foreign Language Teachers (NYSAFLT) from 2006-2009. I would like to serve as a Trustee for the Cornwall Public Library simply because it is one of our community's greatest assets and I want to help keep it the fabulous establishment that it is.
